What is the Buddy Program?

The Buddy Program of the University of Deusto gives the opportunity to their students to interact between local and international students. Through this programme students will be able to meet people from Donostia, get their support and foster mutual contribution. This way, you will make the best of your university experience; your university experience will grow as well as your global skills and background.

This service is volunteer and exclusive for University of Deusto students.

Being part of this programme implies the responsibility of maintaining contact with the buddy and giving the best of yourself in the Buddy relationship.

Within the program, there are two types of roles:

- Big Buddy: local students of the University of Deusto.
- Buddy: international students.

Virtual Buddy Program

The decision of many universities to diversify their mobility formats, as well as making the programme more accessible, has led some students to opt for the virtual format.

In this case, the experience will be carried out on-line.

So, if you are interested in learning about other people's way of life and introducing your own culture to others, this program is for you!

Participation commitment

All students participating in the Buddy program will be required to sign a participation of commitment document. By participating in this program, you commit to participate in the monthly activities organized by the University and inform the responsible person at each campus in case of any issues related to the program.
