Students applying to the Bachelor's degree in Modern Languages and Management must comply with the following entry requirements:

- ✓ Successful acquisition of the competences in the Spanish Baccalaureate programme
- ✓ A good knowledge of Spanish, English and Basque, demonstrating proof of a B1 level and the commitment to reach the levels legally required for award of the Bachelor's degree certificate.
- ✓ A good academic record.
- ✓ An interest and curiosity to understand the world around them as citizens and about individuals' well-being and development.
- ✓ Interpersonal skills and an awareness of others' needs.
- ✓ Capacity for self-insight, openness to self-knowledge and maturity.

These recommendations refer to the set of characteristics that foster development of the competences envisaged for the Bachelor's degree. These aspects are therefore highly valued in the selection process.
