

Double Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and Management + Law

Candidate profile

Students wishing to study the Bachelor's degree in Business Administration + Law at University of Deusto must have a proactive attitude towards learning and developing the professional competences in the field of business administration and law. Candidates to the Business Administration + Law degree should have analytical and reasoning skills, be organised and persevering in their studies; they should also like to argue their own ideas, with initiative and a desire to work in a team. Furthermore, they should be interested in economics and law, have a good knowledge of languages, the ability to work in a team and the desire to become an excellent, responsible and socially committed professionals.

Graduate profile

The Double Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration and Management + Law opens the door to a wide range of career opportunities, providing students with the appropriate skills and knowledge to resolve conflicts in both the business and legal spheres, as well as in those positions where this combination is especially valued and needed. Examples are tax, labour and international business consultancy firms, a company's legal or human resources departments or international trade and contracting. The Double Degree also entitles participants to enter the legal profession after successfully completing the Master's Degree in Law and Legal Practice, offered by the University of Deusto, among others.

Deusto

Universidad de Deusto
Deustuko Unibertsitatea