

In the second year, students opt between an internship (anywhere in the world!) or a research track in any of the eight European universities. For selected European students, a research track in one of the four overseas partner universities is available. During the final semester, all students return to their first universities, with an option to go back to the second university (upon availability)